

1 a satisfaction with, though we hope nothing should happen
2 to our President, we would still be in good hands with you,
3 sir. You have done a nice job today. (Applause.)

4 DELEGATE JAMES: Thank you. The Chair
5 recognizes Delegate Penniman.

6 DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, I think we 7 might also note thanks to the Committee on Suffrage and 8 Elections for an excellent presentation today and for the 9 excellent work of the Chairman of that committee.
10 (Applause.)

11 DELEGATE JAMES: I have noticed that two 12 chairmen who have had the burden of carrying the 13 discussion thus far have been frayed at the end. It is 14 a very nerve racking thing, I know. The Chair recognizes 15 Delegate Powers.

16 DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, before I
17 move to adjourn, I would like to repeat an earlier
18 announcement because there have been a number of inquiries.
19 Our schedule from this time forward until further 20 notice will be that we will convene in the mornings at 21 10 o'clock and recess for an hour and a half in the
